SEE LEARNING SPACES
THE WAY KIDS DO

Designed for SEL + Neurodiversity

PeacePod is a mobile, enclosed social-emotional support space designed to help students pause, reset, and regulate when emotions run high. Thoughtfully sized for early learners and flexible classrooms, it provides a sense of safety without isolation—supporting self-regulation, independence, and emotional growth.

• Calm Space for BIG Feelings

Enclosed space that helps students calm their bodies, manage big feelings, and regain focus

• Padded Interior

Softens sound and creates comfort

Private

Designed to feel private—but never isolating.

• Mobile

Smooth-rolling casters allow PeacePod to move easily from room to room or reposition within the classroom as needs change
